

Celebrating Bannow's Maritime History and Heritage: How to do local history research

Training & Mentoring, Day 1: Friday, 24th September

Morning: Collecting and Recording Local Heritage:

9.00 am – 12.30 pm

- + What is community/local heritage?
- + How to collect and record community heritage?
- + Sources for community heritage
- + Documenting and archiving heritage data

Afternoon: Discussion of research assignments

1.30 – 4.00 pm

Participants will choose a local research topic

Workshop discussion and mentoring: Staff member(s) of John Cronin & Associates will be available to meet with course participants to discuss their research assignments.

Training & Mentoring, Day 2: Friday, 8th October

Morning: Introduction to research resources

9.00 am – 12.30 pm

- + Local libraries and archives
- + Cartographic and aerial photographic resources
- + Archaeological datasets (including excavations)
- + Topographical files
- + Shipwrecks database
- + Collecting oral history
- + General research tips

Afternoon: Discussion of research assignments

1.30 – 4.00 pm

Participants will choose a local research topic

Workshop discussion and mentoring – Staff member(s) of John Cronin & Associates will be available to meet with course participants to discuss their research assignments.

